

"I guess I'll take the dogs for a run," he said, heading out the door with their three pets.

I've written before about my late stepmother, Alyce, who always said, "I'd rather wear out, than rust out."

She lived by that saying, spending her time caring for her family—offering advice to her often bewildered stepson—volunteering for her church and community, almost to the end, at the of 83.

I wish Scott would have had the same chance. As it was, he spent his last Sunday the way he spent most of his spare time—taking care of those he loved.

Scott deserved another 50 years, at least as much as any of us do. He was just hitting his stride when he was called from this life Sunday afternoon, at the age of 33.

Maybe his memory will help us make the right choices when it comes to how we spend our precious days on earth.●
